THE SLEEPING GIRL.

(From the Hickman (Ky.) Courier). Miss Susan Caroline Godsey, the sleeping wonder, died at ber mother's home, some eight miles from Hickman. The history of Miss Godsev is well known to the public, a statement of her wonderful condition having been published extensively by the press of the United States. At the time of her death Miss Godsey was about twenty six years of age and had been asleep, as described, about fourteen years. The existence of this wonderful case of coma, or preternatural disposition to sleen, has been doubted by many; but the fact is indisputable. Indeed, some twelve months ago, Miss Godsey was taken to Nashville and other places for exhibition; but we. understand many, even of the physicians of Mashville, looked upon the case with suspicion. The history of the case is, briefly: When about twelve years of age she was taken with a severe chill, and treated accordingly by her physician. As her fever, which followed her chill, subsided, she fell into a deep sleep, in which condition she remained ever since, except at intervals. It was her custom at first to awaken twice in every twenty four hours each day; but of later years she awoke oftener, so much so that many considered it at indication of her final recovery. She would remain awake five, ten, or perhaps fifteen minutes, and gradually drop off to sleep again. When ask op it was utterly impossible to arouse her. * She never complained of any bodily pain, though, when asleep she was very nervous at times, and appeared to anffer considerably by the violent twitching and jerking of her muscles and limbs, and her hands clenched tightly as if enduring severe pain, but when awake she did not appear to suffer except from a drowsy, gaping inclination and persistent efforts to cleanse her throat of phlegm. She generally passed into sleep by violent parox-
